Editorial Submission Guidelines

- Articles should:
  - be on a timely topic relevant to the general membership.
  - be approximately 300 words.
  - provide objective and general advice that does not include a direct reference to your company's expertise.
- The opportunity to promote your organization will be in the "By-line" at the end of the article. The "By-line" can be two to three sentences that include your name, title, and organization, brief summary of experience, your telephone number, email and website

Note: If you are not an experienced writer we suggest that you have your article reviewed and proofread by a chamber member qualified to ensure your article meets standard article submission guidelines. Please contact the chamber if you need a list of resources.
